Register Now for the First New Horizons Pre-Conference

The VCCS Office of Professional Development and New Horizons Executive Committee are pleased to announce the first New Horizons Pre-Conference:

Faculty Master Class: Cooperative Learning Techniques to Enhance Student Success

Tuesday, April 12 from 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Shenandoah Room, Hotel Roanoke & Conference Center

Take your teaching to a new level! This highly interactive 3-hour workshop is designed to educate, inspire, and rejuvenate community college educators across the curriculum. Register now to:

- Plunge into the world of cooperative, active learning with outstanding instructors who will help you take teaching to the next level
- Walk away with an arsenal of tools for improving classroom teaching and effectiveness
- Link teaching strategies directly to the state classroom observation instrument required for faculty evaluations
- Learn how the effective use of cooperative learning can increase completion rates for all students and boost both the term-to-term and fall-to-fall retention rates for the institution
- Discover vital strategies for increasing the success of minority and low-income students and maximizing graduation rates

The Faculty Master Class: Cooperative Learning Techniques to Enhance Student Success features instructors from Patrick Henry Community College’s award-winning SCALE (Southern Center for Active Learning Excellence) Institute. You’ll learn exciting teaching techniques from outstanding instructors.

Pre-Conference Registration

The cost of registration is $75, and attendance is limited to the first 50 participants who register.

To register, please use the following link:

Faculty Master Class Registration

For more information, including instructor biographies and lodging policy, please follow the links below.

If you have questions about the pre-conference, please contact the New Horizons Pre-Conference team at newhorizons@vccs.edu.