Announcements

The Announcements area in Blackboard Learn is where instructors post information about courses, such as upcoming tests, assignment due dates, special instructions, and course content postings. It is very important that students keep up with class announcements.

This quick start guide provides you the information on how to view course announcements in your TCC courses. There are two ways announcements can be viewed:

1. on the TCC Blackboard landing page, and
2. in the Announcements page of your TCC course.

To view an announcement on the TCC Blackboard landing page:

Step 1
On the TCC Blackboard landing page, locate the module titled My Announcements.

Step 2
Click on the “more announcements” link in the lower right hand corner of the box to view more announcements.
To view an announcement in the Announcements page of your TCC course:

Step 1
On the TCC Blackboard landing page, under My Blackboard Courses, click on the name of your Blackboard course.

The first page you see is the Announcements page for the course.
